Case No. 5:15-cv-01467-JGB (SPx)

PROTECTIVE ORDER

[NOTE CHANGE MADE BY THE COURT IN ¶ 6.3]

20 Plaintiff Regina Sanchez (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Green Tree Servicing 21 LLC, now known as DITECH FINANCIAL LLC (“Defendant”) hereby stipulate and 22 move for a Protective Order as provided in Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil 23 Procedure. The Parties agree as follows:

24 1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

25 Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production 26 of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from 27 public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation 28 may be warranted. Accordingly, the Parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court

1 to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The Parties acknowledge that this 2 Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery 3 and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the 4 limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the 5 applicable legal principles. The Parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 6 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file
7 confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5.1 sets forth the procedures 8 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 9 permission from the Court to file material under seal.

10 B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

11 Good cause exists for entry of this Stipulated Protective Order because this 12 action could potentially involve proprietary information such as business plans, 13 policies and procedures, contracts, revenue, costs and profit reports, as well as personal 14 financial information, including financial account numbers, and third party borrower 15 contact and loan information. Specifically, Plaintiff has requested that Defendant 16 produce its policies and procedures and training materials, the terms and content of 17 which may not be subject to public disclosure and which Defendant would not share 18 with competitors. Further, documents sought by Plaintiff likely contain personal 19 and/or financial information regarding Defendant's customers, other than Plaintiff.
20 Likewise, Defendant has requested information from Plaintiff containing personal 21 banking information and other financial information in which Plaintiff has privacy 22 interests.

23 Based on information requested, including that described herein, the Parties 24 anticipate that they will disclose sensitive personal, financial, and/or proprietary 25 information. Private information of third parties may also be disclosed. It is important 26 that this information remain protected and not be readily available due to the dangers 27 of identity theft, violating the constitutional privacy rights of third parties, and 28 protection of business competition interests. The unrestricted or unprotected disclosure

1 of such private, financial and/or business information would result in prejudice or harm 2 to the producing party and third parties by revealing their information which could 3 result in identity theft, loss of business and/or violation of federal and state privacy 4 laws.

5 Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt 6 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect 7 information the Parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the Parties are 8 permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the 9 conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends 10 of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the 11 intent of the Parties that information will not be designated as confidential for tactical 12 reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been 13 maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should 14 not be part of the public record of this case.

15 2. DEFINITIONS

16 2.1 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation 17 of information or items under this Order.

18 2.2 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of 19 how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection 20 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) and as specified above in the Good Cause 21 Statement.

22 2.3 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their 23 support staff).

24 2.4 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 25 items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 26 “CONFIDENTIAL.”

27 2.5 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of 28 the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including,

1 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 2 generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

3 2.6 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 4 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an 5 expert witness or as a consultant in this action.

6 2.7 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this action.
7 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 8 counsel.

9 2.8 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 10 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

11 2.9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party 12 to this action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this action and have 13 appeared in this action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which 14 has appeared on behalf of that party.

15 2.10 Party: any party to this action, including all of its officers, directors, 16 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 17 support staffs).

18 2.11 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 19 Discovery Material in this action.

20 2.12 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support 21 services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 22 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and 23 their employees and subcontractors.

24 2.13 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 25 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

26 2.14 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material 27 from a Producing Party.

28 3. SCOPE

1 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected 2 Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from 3 Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected 4 Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their 5 Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

6 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial
7 judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

8 4. DURATION

9 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 10 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise 11 in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be 12 the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without 13 prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all 14 appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits 15 for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

16 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

17 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
18 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this 19 Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies 20 under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection 21 only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 22 qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications 23 for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of 24 this Order.

25 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 26 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose 27 (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.
28

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 6.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

(a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the "CONFIDENTIAL" legend to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

1 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, 2 that the Designating Party shall be made either on the record or by written notice to the 3 other party within 30 days of receipt of the transcript. Unless otherwise agreed, 4 depositions shall be treated as “Confidential” during the 30-day period following 5 receipt of the transcript. The deposition of any witness (or any portions of such 6 deposition) that encompasses Confidential information shall be taken only in the 7 presence of persons who are qualified to have access to such information.

8 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 9 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 10 exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the 11 legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item 12 warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 13 protected portion(s).

14 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 15 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 16 Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon 17 timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts 18 to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

19 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

20 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 21 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s Scheduling 22 Order.

23 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties shall comply with the requirements of 24 Local Rule 37.1, et seq. in challenging confidentiality designations. The Challenging 25 Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each 26 designation it is challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. In addition to 27 the requirements in Local Rule 37.1, to avoid ambiguity as to whether a challenge has 28 been made, the written notice must recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being

1 made in accordance with this specific paragraph of the Protective Order. The parties 2 shall attempt to resolve each challenge in good faith and must begin the process by 3 conferring directly (in voice to voice dialogue; other forms of communication are not 4 sufficient) within 10 days of the date of service of notice. In conferring, the 5 Challenging Party must explain the basis for its belief that the confidentiality 6 designation was not proper and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to 7 review the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in 8 designation is offered, to explain the basis for the chosen designation. A Challenging 9 Party may proceed to the next stage of the challenge process only if it has engaged in 10 this meet and confer process first or establishes that the Designating Party is unwilling 11 to participate in the meet and confer process in a timely manner.

12 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the Parties cannot resolve a challenge without 13 court intervention, the Designating Party shall file and serve a motion to retain 14 confidentiality under Civil Local Rule 37 (and in compliance with Civil Local Rule 15 79-5.1, if applicable) within 21 days of the initial notice of challenge or within 14 days 16 of the parties agreeing that the meet and confer process will not resolve their dispute, 17 whichever is earlier. Each such motion must be accompanied by a competent 18 declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and confer 19 requirements imposed in the preceding paragraph. Failure by the Designating Party to 20 make such a motion including the required declaration within 21 days (or 14 days, if 21 applicable) shall automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each 22 challenged designation. In addition, the Challenging Party may file a motion 23 challenging a confidentiality designation at any time if there is good cause for doing 24 so, including a challenge to the designation of a deposition transcript or any portions 25 thereof. Any motion brought pursuant to this provision must be accompanied by a 26 competent declaration affirming that the movant has complied with the meet and 27 confer requirements imposed by the preceding paragraph.

1 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 2 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., 3 to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose 4 the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the 5 confidentiality designation by failing to file a motion to retain confidentiality as 6 described above, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level 7 of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the 8 Court rules on the challenge.

9 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

10 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 11 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case 12 only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Such Protected 13 Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions 14 described in this Order. When the litigation has been terminated, a Receiving Party 15 must comply with the provisions of section 14 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

16 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 17 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 18 authorized under this Order.

19 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless 20 otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 21 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated "CONFIDENTIAL" 22 only to:

23 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this action, as well 24 as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to 25 disclose the information for this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment 26 and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A;

1 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 2 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who 3 have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

4 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 5 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 6 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

7 (d) the Court and its personnel;

8 (e) court reporters and their staff, professional jury or trial consultants, mock 9 jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 10 litigation and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 11 (Exhibit A);

12 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 13 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 14 Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered 15 by the Court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that 16 reveal Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not 17 be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order.

18 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 19 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

20 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 21 OTHER LITIGATION

22 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a Court order issued in other litigation 23 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 24 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

25 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 26 include a copy of the subpoena or Court order;

27 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 28 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or

1 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 2 Stipulated Protective Order; and

3 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 4 by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

5 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 6 the subpoena or Court order shall not produce any information designated in this action 7 as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the Court from which the subpoena 8 or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 9 Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court 10 of its confidential material – and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 11 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this action to disobey a lawful 12 directive from another court.

13 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN 14 THIS LITIGATION

15 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-16 Party in this action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced 17 by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief 18 provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting 19 a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

20 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 21 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 22 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s confidential 23 information, then the Party shall:

24 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 25 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement 26 with a Non-Party;

1 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 2 Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 3 specific description of the information requested; and 4 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-5 Party.

6 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this Court 7 within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving 8 Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the 9 discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party 10 shall not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 11 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the Court.
12 Absent a Court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense 13 of seeking protection in this Court of its Protected Material.

14 10.UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 16 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 17 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing 18 the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve 19 all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to 20 whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) 21 request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 22 Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

23 11.INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE 24 PROTECTED MATERIAL

25 Consistent with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B) and Federal Rule 26 of Evidence 502, if a party inadvertently produces or provides information subject to 27 the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product doctrine, or other applicable 28 privilege or immunity, the disclosure of inadvertently disclosed information is not and

1 will not be construed or deemed to be general or specific waiver or forfeiture of any 2 such privilege, immunity or work product protection, in this or any other state or 3 federal proceeding, that the Producing Party would otherwise be entitled to assert with 4 respect to the inadvertently disclosed information and its subject matter. Where it 5 appears on its face that the information was inadvertently disclosed, or the Producing 6 Party informs the Receiving Party that privileged or other protected information has 7 been disclosed, the Receiving Party or Parties (i) must promptly return or destroy the 8 specified information and any copies thereof, (ii) must not use or disclose the 9 information until the claim of privilege or other protection is resolved, (iii) must take 10 reasonable steps to retrieve any such information that was disclosed or distributed 11 before the Receiving Party was notified of the claim of privilege or other protection 12 and prevent any further dissemination of the information, and (iv) may promptly 13 present the information to the Court under seal for a determination of privilege or other 14 protection. The producing party must preserve the information until the claim is 15 resolved.

16 12. MISCELLANEOUS

17 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 18 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

19 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 20 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 21 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 22 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 23 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

24 12.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the 25 Designating Party or a Court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested 26 persons, a Party may not file in the public record in this action any Protected Material.
27 A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply with Civil 28 Local Rule 79-5.1. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a Court

1 order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. Pursuant to 2 Civil Local Rule 79-5.1, a sealing order will issue only upon a request establishing that 3 the Protected Material at issue is privileged, protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise 4 entitled to protection under the law. If a Receiving Party's request to file Protected 5 Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5.1 is denied by the Court, then 6 the Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless (1) the 7 designator seeks reconsideration within five Court days of the denial, or (2) as 8 otherwise instructed by the Court.

9 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

10 Within 60 days after the final disposition of this action, as defined in paragraph 11 4, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or 12 destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all 13 copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or 14 capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or 15 destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing 16 Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day
17 deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material 18 that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained 19 any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or 20 capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are 21 entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and 22 hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, 23 expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if 24 such materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 25 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 26 Section 4 (DURATION).
